U. S. Army Finance Corps Museum

By

HELEN B. RHODES, A.N.A. No. 55823

AN IMPORTANT step in preserving the proud past of the U. S. Army Finance Corps was taken in 1954. The chief of finance in Washington had space set aside for the "installation of a Finance Corps Historical Exposition" in the north lobby of the finance center building, Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis.

The finance center, the army's largest administrative building, was dedicated on October 9, 1953 and the last elements were still being moved in when Major General Bickford E. Sawyer, then chief of finance, sent a letter dated January 29, 1954 to offices under his command, around the world.

The letter requested that "all items of a historical nature pertaining to the Finance Corps or its predecessors" be forwarded to the Commanding General, Finance Center, U. S. Army, Indianapolis, Ind., attention: Historian.

General Sawyer's letter indicated that items of historical interest would include, but not be limited to, currency and coins; "first" items, such as cancelled checks of foreign accounts; old or new pictures; and trophies identified with the Finance Corps.

Objectives and Aims

The main objectives of the Finance Corps Museum are to depict the mission and importance of the United States Army Finance Corps by portraying its history, growth, and development. This, in turn, increases effectiveness of the army by fostering appreciation of its military, social, and cultural heritage through the medium of historical exhibitions.

Because of its prosaic nature, the finance corps has often been neglected by historians in favor of the army's better known and publicized function of fighting battles. Through the exhibits in the Finance Corps museum, the story of army finance is brought to light.

The material exhibited in the Finance Corps museum is displayed in various ways. Sometimes a definite story is told, with persons and places indicated. For example, a series of six 30" x 40" panels depicts the special comptrollership course held for Nationalist Chinese Officers at the U. S. Army Finance School in 1959.

One exhibit is developed around a United States Treasury check for 1c, issued in 1919 to settle the estate of a soldier. To add color to this display, a painting was included of the famed Uncle Sam "I Want You" recruiting poster of World War I by James Montgomery Flagg. (Recently, this poster was updated to support the recruiting program of the modern Army.)

The following eras of history are represented by displays: Revolutionary War, Civil War, Westward Expansion, World Wars I and II, and the Korean conflict. The part played in the history of the paymasters of the past and the finance officers of the present is indicated.

Pay systems of early years are compared with present day systems in an exhibit "Military Pay, 1787 to 1963." Featured in this display is one of the pens used by the late President John F. Kennedy in signing Public Law 132, 88th Congress. This bill, the "Uniformed Services Pay Act of 1963," is called the Military Pay Bill of 1963.

Exhibits impart an understanding of the scope of the various functions of the Finance Corps and its various elements. Specific displays tell about the finance center and the finance school. An exhibit, "Pay Day for the Military" shows the disbursing officer and some of the many documents used in the finance and accounting office of today.

Several cases are filled with finance corps mementos and these are of special historical significance to the finance corps family. Finance matters of the United States are compared with those of foreign countries by displaying their currency, documents, and various items of interest. Specific events, actions, and visits of national and international dignitaries are recorded, as well as special occasions of general historical significance from a finance corps standpoint. Many exhibits have a definite patriotic theme.

The U. S. Army and Finance Corps anniversaries, National Coin Week, the Civil War Centennial, and U. S. Savings Bond Drives, are among the events and anniversaries that have been observed or commemorated by featuring special displays in the museum.

Military Payment Certificates

One display has particular military significance. It represents a collection of composite and progressive composite impressions of series 461, 471, 472, 481, 521, 541, and 591 military payment certificates (MPCs). Until shortly after World War II, military personnel overseas were paid in foreign currencies and permitted to convert such currencies back into U. S. dollars through the facilities of military disbursing officers. As a result, such personnel converted into dollars considerable amounts of foreign currencies which had not been paid to them originally. Accordingly, the military services accumulated foreign currencies in excess of amounts paid out and in excess of requirements.

The situation was reviewed and discussed in the 1st Session of the 80th Congress in joint hearings before the Senate committees on appropriations, armed services, and banking and currency, in which it was pointed out that the Military Payment Certificate system was being developed, because other control methods had failed, to prevent excess accumulations of foreign currencies. Since that time MPCs have been introduced in nearly every foreign country where U. S. troops are stationed.

Determination as to whether MPCs should be used in a particular area, instead of dollars or local currency, is usually based on discussions with the foreign government, together with considerations as to numbers of U. S. troops in the area, the stability or non-stability of the local currency, the foreign exchange control laws in effect, degree of convertibility of local currency, etc.

MPCs were introduced in the European command on September 16, 1946 and in the Far East command on September 29, 1946. Since then nine series have been placed in circulation, the latest being series 641, introduced in Vietnam on September 1, 1965.

Soldiers' Deposits Program

The display on the soldiers' deposits program is uniquely military. This savings program dates back to the "wild west" days of 1872. At that time the western United States was largely undeveloped and many army installations were in isolated locations with the surrounding territory inhabited by hostile Indian tribes.

No banking facilities were available nor were many consumer goods of use to military personnel, whether or not these goods could be found at the various trading posts or in the wagons of itinerant peddlers. To overcome this inconvenience and to enable enlisted men to form a savings habit, Congress enacted a bill, effective in May, 1872, authorizing deposits to be made with disbursing officers at any locale and to be placed in trust with the United States Treasury.

Included in the colorful display are sketches of soldiers of the various eras of military history since the enactment of the Soldiers' deposit savings program. Also included are old ledger cards of the Spanish American War era, deposit books, and expenditure documents, as well as documents and information indicating the highly advanced data computer methods used in processing soldiers' deposits today.

Methods of Displaying

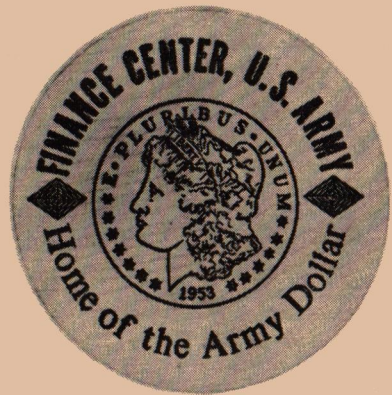

The exhibits are displayed in wall type and flat top cases, stationary and portable swing wing displayors, and easel type displayors. An archives was established in 1957 in which to store displays and material. Exhibits are rotated from time to time to create interest.

Accessions have been received from military personnel (both active and retired) and federal government civilian employees from all over the world. Foreign embassies and dignitaries have made contributions. The ever increasing world wide interest in numismatics is focusing more and more attention on the Finance Corps museum. Numismatists and numismatic scholars, organizations, and publishers are actively cooperating in the museum program.

Persons viewing the Finance Corps museum displays are many and varied. The exhibits are readily accessible to military and civilian personnel of the finance center, who are kept informed when changes or additions are made.

Military and civilian personnel of tenant activities at Fort Benjamin Harrison, visitors or students of the schools on the post, and members of all branches of the armed forces who have business in the finance center building are among those seeing the exhibits.

Wooden "dollar," actual size. Not available for general distribution due to small supply.

Still other viewers include civic leaders and civilian dignitaries from the local community, Washington, D. C., and elsewhere.

During Armed Forces Day open house and on other special occasions, visitors are permitted in the finance center building. The museum is always a high point of these tours. School children (a group from the Indiana School for the Blind was especially interested and interesting) and school teachers are given special tours of the museum.

The Finance Corps museum is featured in the 26-minute narrated documentary color film on the finance center. This film, entitled "The Home of the Army Dollar," is available to clubs, churches, and other groups.

Visitors from other countries take a special interest in viewing the exhibits and often present special mementos to represent their country. These items augment material on hand and enhance the museum greatly.

Contributions Desired

The museum is limited by the amount and kind of material contributed. As sufficient new material becomes available, exhibits are changed or revised.

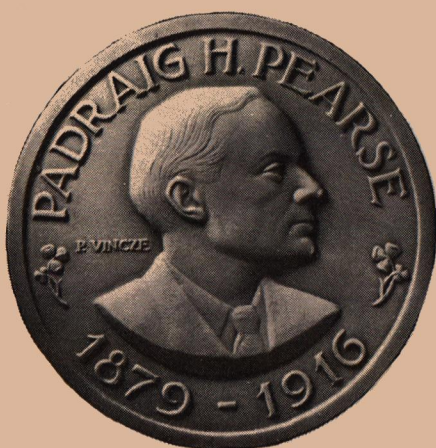

Donations to the Finance Corps museum are encouraged; however, loans are not desired. Contributions should be completely identified as to the history of the item and the name and address of the contributor. Contributions may be sent to the Finance Center, U. S. Army, Indianapolis, Ind. 46249, attention: Finance Corps Museum Curator.

It is through the generosity and interest of the finance corps family and friends that the Finance Corps museum has expanded. By this means the museum creates for posterity the story of army finance and, at the same time, arouses pride in and appreciation and respect for the vital role of the finance corps in our national life.

Miss Helen B. Rhodes, Civil Service employee, has been the Army Finance Corps museum curator and the Finance Center historian for ten years, and is a major in the Civil Air Patrol.

IRISH COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Paul Vincze of London has created, by commission, a medal to mark the 50th anniversary of the 1916 Easter week rising from which the Irish Republic emerged. A bust of Padraig Pearse dominates the obverse, while the reverse has a symbolic representation of a free Irishman and woman. The pieces will be available about mid-May as follows from the Hibernian Bank, Ltd., O'Connell St., Dublin 1, Ireland: 22 carat gold—2", limited to 750 at $310 each; 1½", limited to 1500 at $175 each; sterling silver—2", limited to 1500 at $18.25 each; and 1½", unlimited at $11.25 each. From the President's Desk

Your A.N.A. board of governors has completed another hard working session. We met during the Southern California Numismatic Society convention at the Statler Hilton in Los Angeles, Feb. 17-19. The board was in session three full days and, in addition, held committee meetings during the evenings. A great deal was accomplished and the complete results will be made known soon after the official tape recording of the meeting has been transcribed.

Matt H. Rothert

Our daily meetings were opened with an invocation, after which many business matters were introduced and acted upon. Routine items such as the study and action on our budget and finances were handled. Accepting 12 new life members, examining the list of complaints with decisions on expulsion and suspension, action to improve our library and our extended visual education program, clarifying the board's part in preparing for the Chicago convention and future conventions, and acting upon the reports of all appointed officers took considerable discussion and time, as you may well imagine.

Among the accomplishments, the board authorized a new award to be called the "Elston G. Bradfield Award," in honor of our retiring editor. This award will be made each year to the numismatic publication contributing the most to the furtherance of the objectives of the A.N.A. in accordance with rules which are to be drawn up by a committee.

The architect for the Association's headquarters building, Carlisle B. Guy, appeared before the board with some excellent preliminary sketches and drawings. He has had a great deal of experience in designing and constructing this type of building, as well as much larger ones. The board authorized him to draw up final plans for its approval and to continue this project to its completion.

The site in Colorado Springs is a most desirable one. We will be located on the Colorado College campus, fronting on Cascade Avenue, with a permanent park on one side and the Fine Arts Museum behind us. Pikes Peak looms in the background. Our parking area will extend to the right of the building which will always be the only building in its area. We are 7 blocks from the downtown district where a new Antlers Hotel is being constructed in a $24,000,000 condominium.

The board authorized our medal committee to design a medal and have the dies made to be used by member clubs as a past president's medal. We have had many requests from our A.N.A. clubs for such a medal for presentation to retiring presidents. We are increasing our services to these clubs constantly and, as you know, we now have award certificates and a monthly bulletin for them.

New slide sets are being prepared and arrangements are being made for the production of an A.N.A. movie on the Philadelphia mint. Our contact with the American Numismatic Society was approved in any field in which we can cooperate with its personnel.

The robberies award fund of $10,000 was set aside and the technical rules to govern it, as suggested by the committee, were given to our legal counsel for study and action. Approval was given to have the A.N.A. Code of Ethics made available in attractive 9" by 11" printed form suitable for framing. The report of the National Coin Week chairman was studied and acted upon.

The Sidney Printing and Publishing donation committee allocated the entire $7500 gift to the Association between the visual education, library, National Coin Week and club program work. The "Hall of Fame" committee is taking on a larger scope. Eventually it will enshrine famous numismatists of the past and present, whether they were A.N.A. members or not.

The Washington educational committee made a report which indicated that it is "on the job." Through it the A.N.A. is advocating the resumption of proof sets, to cost not in excess of $5.00 each. The A.N.A. 75th Anniversary medal bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator McClellan of Arkansas as S-2835, and in the House of Representatives by Representative Wilbur Mills as H.R.-12296. These bills are now "in committee" and the sponsors have asked that they be expedited in the hope that they can be passed in plenty of time to meet the situation.

Many other things are under consideration by the board. Of paramount interest is the selection of an executive director and establishing the staff for the headquarters by the time it is ready for occupancy. Elsewhere in this issue is an announcement regarding the editorship of The Numismatist, resulting from action taken at the February meeting. All board actions are made with the best interests of our members at heart; the board is sincere in its views and our membership can see that much is being done and much more will be done in the future to continually improve the A.N.A. — MATT H. ROTHERT, President

Coins on Stamps

By

SOL TAYLOR, A.N.A. No. 53402

SINCE the famous Tonga "gold coin" round stamps were issued a few years ago, much interest has been focused by the numismatic fraternity upon stamps featuring coins. The recent issues have been publicized in the numismatic press, including the Burundi gold foil issue commemorating the issuance of gold coins by this former Belgian African Territory, the Swiss semipostal issues, and the latest issue from the newly independent state in the regular coinage of Israel.

Close on the heels of Israel with coins-on-stamps in another country with a rich ancient culture: Greece. The catalog shows 25 stamps with coins, the first such in 1937 shows a coin of the Amphictyonic League. The Greek airmail set of 1954 honoring the NATO Treaty included a 2400 drachma stamp showing a coin of the aforementioned period. In 1955 an issue featured a coin of Samos with the por-of Malawi. However, a search through Scott's Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue, 1966 combined edition, revealed many older issues featuring coins in their designs. The list presented here may not be altogether complete, but it does cover the field as extensively as can be determined from this source.

Israel comes as the leader in coin-stamps with several issues, starting in 1948. Its first set of stamps featured coins of ancient Judea. The first six low values bore representations of the obverses of various coins, while the three high values showed both sides of the coins. In 1949 a souvenir sheet was issued for the first anniversary celebration of Israeli postage stamps and the first national stamp exhibition, "Tabul," in Tel Aviv. This sheet features four ten mil stamps of the 1948 coins-on-stamps issue. In 1950 six additional coin designs appeared on stamps, featuring coins of Judea of the first century. The same coins were on various new denominations issued in 1950, 1952, 1954, and finally in 1960. All of these designs bore only the obverses of the coins, and many of the designs were incorporated trait of Pythagoras. In 1959 Greece issued a set of ten stamps, each bearing the obverse and reverse of a different ancient Greek coin, identified as follows by Scott's Catalogue Numbers:

- 639 Zeus — eagle
- 640 Athena — owl
- 641 Nymph Arethusa — quadriga
- 642 Hercules — Zeus
- 643 Helios — rose
- 644 griffin — square
- 645 Apollo — lyre
- 646 Apollo — labyrinth
- 647 Aphrodite — Apollo
- 648 incuse ram's head — square

An additional series was issued in 1963 showing the same coins on nine new values. Two postal tax stamps issued in 1956 show coins featuring Philip II of Macedonia and the noted philosopher Aristotle. In 1964 a set was issued to commemorate the Byzantine art exposition held in Athens and the low value stamp, one drachma, depicted a Bulgaroctomus (Bulgarian) coin of Emperor Basil II.

The two high value regular issue stamps of Monaco of 1946 featured the obverse coin design showing Prince Louis II. Persia issued a stamp in 1950 that featured an old coin of Seldjukide. This stamp was part of a set of semi-postals issued to raise funds for the reconstruction of the tomb of Avicenna. The 10+5 rial olive gray stamp was the highest valued stamp in the set of five.

The only set of stamps issued specifically to honor a coin exposition was released by Peru in 1959. At the first numismatic exposition in Lima, a set of

In 1958 Czechoslovakia issued a set of two stamps honoring the National Archives Exhibition in Prague, May 15 through August 15. The 30 heller stamp portrays the obverse and reverse of a two airmail stamps was issued featuring the first dated Peruvian coin minted in Lima in 1659. The exposition hailed the 300th anniversary of the city of Lima also.

Cyprus featured coins on three different stamps. The first was in 1928 on the $\frac{3}{4}$ piastre stamp of the 50th anniversary issue of British rule. The design depicts a silver coin of Amathus. In the last issue of Elizabeth II stamps of 1955, the 25 mil stamp shows a coin of Paphos; while in the same series the 500 mil stamp shows four Cyprian coin devices — Salamis, Daphos, Citium and Idalion.

Ghana issued a four-stamp souvenir sheet in 1964 honoring the fourth anniversary of the republic. Featured in the border design around the stamps is medieval coin of King George of Podobrat. The obverse shows a lion rampant coat of arms surrounded by four other coats of arms. The coin was issued about 1460.

Portuguese India (Goa) issued a set of colorful stamps in 1959 showing the two sides of various coins from the reign of Manuel I (1495-1521) to recent issues. Twenty stamps comprise the set and the coins are pictured in their actual mint colors on the stamps.

Liberia featured the liberty head obverse of its current 25 cent coin on its 25 cent stamp of 1906. France issued a set of three precancelled, bicolored stamps in 1964 on which the main subject is a Gallic coin of medieval France. Bermuda chose its own famous "hogge" coins for three different stamps. The Nigeria featured the native iron ring money, called "manilla," on the half penny issue of 1953. These "coins" are horseshoe shaped and of various sizes. In 1964 Nigeria joined many countries in paying tribute to President John F. Kennedy. The five shilling stamp in the set of three featured the U. S. Kennedy half dollar design, lacking the word LIBERTY and the date. In addition, the same stamp appeared as a block of four in a special souvenir sheet.

The Cameroun Republic issued a set of three stamps in 1965 to honor the Federal Postal Savings Bank. The 20 is the obverse of the 1881 five peso coin minted in Buenos Aires. On the 150th anniversary of its independence, Columbia issued a souvenir sheet with four airmail stamps in 1960. One of the stamps, the 1 peso, features the obverse and reverse of Columbia's first coin.

Swiss semipostal issues of 1962 and 1964 both have designs of early Swiss coins. They are listed here by their Scott's Catalogue Numbers:

- B314 ½ thaler Oberalden 1732
- B315 Schwyz ducat ca. 1653
- B316 "steer head" Batzen, Uri 1659

The current one leva silver coin of Bulgaria is shown on four stamps of its regular postal issue of 1945. It issued a set of regular postage in 1961 containing ten stamps. The highest value, the one leva, features a crude silver coin of Tsar Assen who is shown astride a horse.

The Greek island of Crete issued two stamps featuring coins in 1900. The one lepton depicts a Hermes coin, while the five lepta shows a Hera coin. Germany commemorated its tenth anniversary of currency reform in 1958 with a stamp showing the eagle reverse of its five mark coin of 1951.

In 1963 Tonga startled the philatelic and numismatic worlds by issuing a unique set of 13 stamps. They represented the first round stamps; the first gold foil stamps; the first self-sticking stamps; and probably the largest stamps. Several of them have been re-issued with new values imprinted on them. They were initially issued to commemorate the first gold coins of Polynesia and carried the designs of these new coins in accordance with the relative values of the stamps. Tonga led the philatelic world with the first round stamps, then followed in 1964 with the first heart-shaped stamps made of embossed foil. A set of four such was issued to honor the Pan Pacific and South East Asia Women's Association Conference held at Numualofa in August, 1964. Each stamp featured a replica of the ¼ koula gold coin of Tonga. In addition, a set of four airmail stamps made of foil and cut to the shape of Tongatabu (one of the Friendly Islands) was issued, also to commemorate the Women's Conference. Each island-shaped stamp bore the obverse of the gold $\frac{1}{4}$ koura coin also.

Not much later Burundi followed with a set of eight stamps designed very much like the 1963 Tonga round stamps. A recently issued set of round stamps of Sharjah features the new Kennedy coins issued for that Arabian sheikdom.

Stamp collectors have long prized themes in their collecting habits. Older popular themes included trains, bearded men, boats, Boy Scout issues, etc. With stamp collectors rallying around newer themes, such as outer space issues, Antarctic exploration issues and now coins, we can look forward to more "Coins-On-Stamp." When, we might speculate, will the United States issue such a stamp!

A.N.A. Board Appoints New Editor

Glenn B. Smedley has been appointed editor of The Numismatist effective with the April issue. Well known throughout the United States because of his countless activities in numismatics, he brings to the post experience gained as American Numismatic Association governor and vice president, president of the Chicago Coin Club, work on numerous committees, and half a dozen years as assistant to the editor.

He succeeds Elston G. Bradfield who resigned at the 1964 A.N.A. Houston convention but, at the board's request, remained in office until a suitable replacement could be found. "I gladly step down from a post of high honor and responsibility, now that I know The Numismatist is in such capable hands as those of Glenn Smedley," said Bradfield. "This augurs well for the future of the magazine."

Elston G. Bradfield

Bradfield was named assistant and acting editor on December 20, 1953, and became editor at the 1954 convention. At its meeting in mid-February 1966, the board made him editor emeritus, honoring him for long years of distinguished service to the Association and to numismatics in general.

In its 77½ years of publication, starting in the fall of 1888, The Numismatist has had nine editors who served periods varying from Lee Hewitt's three months during an emergency situation to Frank G. Duffield's 27 years, 1915-42. One has only to compare recent issues of the magazine with any before 1954 to see the many improvements which have put it in the foreground of monthly publications.

"I have enjoyed working with Editor Bradfield," said Smedley, "as assistant since the fall of 1959 and have gradually gotten my feet wetter, so to speak. My willingness to become his successor had a slow birth resulting largely from scruples about my ability to fill the position to even my own satisfaction.

"But the die is cast, and my pledge to the officers and members of the Association is concise and naive: 'I will do my utmost to continue the 77 year tradition of The Numismatist as the finest publication in the field of general numismatics, and to make any changes in its present format and policies only after careful study and consultation with proper and qualified persons.' A vital factor in becoming the tenth A.N.A. editor," Smedley added, "was the assurance of Editor Emeritus Bradfield that his counsel and advice will be available to me."

Members Comment on Exhibit Rules

In the February issue, page 161, Carl L. Roethke made some comments pertaining to rules governing exhibits and judging at A.N.A. conventions. Several exhibitors have written to the editor regarding Roethke's letter, both pro and con. Even before the letter was published in February, the exhibit rules committee, Virginia Culver, chairman, had issued revised rules to govern at the 1966 Diamond Anniversary convention in Chicago. (See 1966 Convention Exhibits in this issue) Some of the points covered by the recent letters have been recognized in the new rules, but we publish here excerpts from three letters on exhibiting.

"As secretary of the United Numismatic Exhibitors, we cannot allow this letter to go unanswered as I feel that Mr. Roethke means well but does not know the facts, nor does he know the purpose of the UNE. We agree with him that standardizing the method of competitive exhibiting and overhauling the general rules of judging should have been done a long time ago, and that is why UNE was formed. We advocate dropping the 10 points for 'rarity and/or value' from the point system, giving a good exhibit with numismatic value an equal chance against a valuable exhibit put up by an owner who knows nothing about his coins. We are striving to get a ruling to prevent the 'best-of-show' winner from coming back the next year and entering the same exhibit in competition. We are trying to get a class called 'best-of-show only,' where anyone who won a 'first' award in his class and did not win 'best-of-show' can come back in the future and try to win the most coveted of all awards, yet give others a chance to win 'first' in his class.

"You are not well informed, Mr. Roethke, or you would have known all this and more, as we have a rule where none of the UNE members should exhibit for a private individual running a show for personal profit, or at a show where the exhibit chairman or his brother-in-law wins the 'best-of-show' award. We have done a lot of good and have the finest of exhibitors as members. Please attend our next meeting at the A.N.A. convention in Chicago as my guest and be pleasantly surprised.

"I did bring up the fact at the UNE meeting of the exhibitor who received only 7 points out of a possible 100, and said his exhibit did not belong in national competition. It is a fact that we are the only large national organization of its kind that does not have a state or regional competition which one must win to get into the national.

"As long as you asked, 'How many points did this guy get at his first exhibit?' let me say that I studied the exhibits at two A.N.A. conventions to see what other exhibitors had to offer. Only after a serious study of exhibiting and judging, I put together an exhibit that won 'first' for foreign paper money with 93 points at the Atlanta convention in 1961. As to collecting trophies, as you put it, I feel that I have the finest collection of trophies ever given as 90% of them are noncompetitive and were awarded to me 'For his outstanding contribution to numismatics through exhibiting.'

"You are wrong, I feel, in saying that an invited exhibitor should get only a 'thank you.' Let the committee give an invited noncompetitive exhibitor a small plaque, medal or certificate as a token of appreciation so that he can take home a memento and a warm feeling of friendliness and evidence that he was there.

"Mr. Roethke, you must be a fine man to have had the privilege of being a friend of the late Lewis M. Reagan, so I respect you and your wife, who has done some fine work, and I respect your opinions but ask that you respect mine. You have been an A.N.A. member much longer than I have and, had you done your part in getting this all straightened out when you first joined, you wouldn't have to listen to a guy like me to whom you left the job." — ART LOVI, A.N.A. LM 472

"Carl Roethke is 100% correct: If an A.N.A. objective is to encourage embryo and beginning collectors, there should be no pre-judging of an exhibit before it is displayed in competition. The novice with his collection of old, beat-up Lincoln cents should be welcomed, if he's willing to spend the time and effort to display.

"A tremendous help to that novice would be the policy instituted at the January 'money show' of the Greater Houston Coin Club. Immediately after the awards were announced, the chairman affixed to each 3rd, 2nd, 1st and the best-of-show exhibit a scoring sheet for that individual exhibit. Then, to save any embarrassment for such as the lad who took only 7 points, a scoring sheet was handed privately to each exhibitor who won no prize. This scoring sheet listed the usual 5 criteria, the maximum possible points, points won by the best-of-show, points won by 1st place, and points won by the particular exhibit.

"That information enabled the non-winner to compare scoring sheets of the winners with his own scores, and then to study the winning exhibits to learn how to improve his display to pick up more points next time. It is hoped that this feature will be adopted by the Texas Numismatic Association, and it is offered here for A.N.A. consideration.

"Another need, which I believe Mr. Roethke recognizes, is a national standard of grading—a standard interpretation of each scoring criterion, such as just what is meant by 'rarity and/or value.' With such a known standard, each exhibitor could know exactly for what he must shoot in preparing his exhibit, and would know that the rules would be the same from coast to coast.

"One final thought—the A.N.A. should decide what its objective is in having exhibits. Is the purpose simply to give one collector a chance to spread out his collection and brag to another knowledgeable collector? Shall he assume that all viewers will know all about each coin, what the opposite side of each coin looks like, the circumstances of each coin's minting, and where the place of minting is or was located?

"Or is the purpose of A.N.A. exhibits to lure into numismatics the noncollector or even the luke-warm collector? As a long-time collector but only a 3-times exhibitor, I'm perfectly willing to go along with either objective, but one objective should be selected and announced.

"If the objective is to attract more folks into the collecting hobby, and thus broaden the membership of the A.N.A., then exhibitors should be encouraged to 'package' their displays in the most attention-attracting manner. Nothing could be less interest-provoking than row on row of funereal standard cases, and you have only to watch the swiftly lost interest of most visitors to San Antonio's Witte Museum when they enter the coin room and see monotonous row on row of cases, despite the informative cards within each.

"Incidentally, at the Houston show in January, the runnerup for the best-of-show award was a young lady who'd never exhibited before, who built and painted her exhibit with her own lily-white hands in three weeks, but whose display was such a 'stopper' that it brought from all viewers nothing less than exclamations of delight at its attractive packaging. Thanks for listening!" — VIRGIL HANCOCK, A.N.A. 43616

"Upon receiving the February Club Bulletin and reading the contents, I feel compelled to comment on the article on making exhibits. I take exception to the point scoring system, No. 5, rarity, and say that increasing the number of points to 10 is only compounding a felony! The analysis of the A.N.A. board of governors is stated thus in The Bulletin: 'Many collectors and exhibitors claim that lowering the point score for rarity has discouraged the display of rarities and encouraged the display of common material. This situation caused A.N.A. to increase the score for rarity from 5 to 10 points.' In my opinion this is the largest step backwards the A.N.A. has taken in many years.

"The following excerpt is from an article of mine that appeared recently in Coin World and The Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine: 'Extra points should not be given to a collector because he can afford to own a $4 stella. With this rarity rating, an excellent exhibit which qualified for top score in information, arrangement and originality, completeness and choice condition of material could come up with a total score of 90, and still never win best-in-show because of the 10 points reserved for rarity. After all, there are degrees of rarity not measured in cost! Those who have $10,000 to spend can buy a $4 stella tomorrow, but did you ever try to find a twenty-cent piece from Hong Kong of Edward VII in choice condition; or a twenty-five centavos issued in 1929 from Nicaragua; or a quarter-cent of 1904 from Ceylon? Who is qualified to judge which is the rarer?

"The collector with the fabulous, rare and expensive specimens should be on an invitational basis, given prime exhibit space, and rewarded with a special reward for removing them from the vault and courageously bringing them to the show or convention."

"I cannot possibly agree with the board that this increase of 5 points for rarity will encourage the exhibitor. In 1964 my exhibit, 'Israel, an Ancient Nation Reborn,' which contained 14 coins with a then total value of less than $100, took best-of-show at the International convention in Los Angeles. Many exhibits were entered with far more expensive coins and many rarities, but evidently mine presented to the viewing public the fullest numismatic information, had the best arrangement, the most originality, and fully complete showing of coins in choice condition. This same exhibit took another best-of-show one week later at the San Diego County fair, with a set of different judges. Neither of these conventions had points for rarity. I wonder how it would have fared at an A.N.A. convention?

"With the rarity rating, does the judge have at his beck and call mintage figures for every exhibit he judges? How does he decide which coin is a rarity and which is not by his knowledge of how much the items cost? Cannot an informative exhibit of common coins tell as great a story as one with a $4 stella? If you want better and more exhibits, give the exhibitor a chance to win an award based on his workmanship and knowledge — not on his pocketbook!

"I feel also that retention of categories by the A.N.A. is another rule to pamper the few and is not in the best interest of all collectors. Under the category system, an exhibitor could receive a score of 93 points and still not place third, if others in his category got scores of 96, 95 and 94. Can this be explained logically to the layman who comes to view the exhibits and sees a first award on an exhibit that merited only 79 points, with no award on a far superior exhibit in another class with a score of 93 points?

"In the A.N.A. twelve classes, foreign coins after 1500 A.D. are lumped into one class, except only Canadian and Latin American. Why not a Mexican class, since we have a strong Mexican society? We now stand with some 200 other countries all lumped together, with the trend to foreign collecting and the exhibits now running 60 to 70 per cent in the foreign field. We find the A.N.A. still ignoring the trend and eliminating the exhibitor of foreign coins from competition.

"If the A.N.A. wants better and more exhibits, then give the exhibitor a chance to win a coveted A.N.A. best-of-show, based on the merits of his workmanship and knowledge; not based on a lottery of which category has the least competition or who has the rarest numismatic items!" — SYLVIA HAFFNER, A.N.A. 55218

Notes & Queries

Exhibit Stolen from Bank

During the early morning hours of May 25, 1965, a burglary was committed at the Lincoln National Bank and Trust Company of Central New York, Syracuse, New York, in which a display of coin and currency, loaned by the Federal Reserve System, was stolen. The exhibit had been publicized in the press and had been on display at many banks throughout the country previously. The exhibit included 11 picture frames. Of these, 7 were stolen. Among the items lost were Continental and Confederate money, old $1 and $2 bills, gold coins, silver coins, and some comparisons of counterfeit and genuine currency. The most distinctive bills were a set of current bills including all denominations from $1 to $10,000 with only zeros as serial numbers. These were printed only on one side.

Frame of small size $1, $2, $5 and $10 notes stolen in Syracuse bank burglary.

Any person having knowledge concerning this burglary or of the money stolen in the burglary should take no action which might jeopardize his safety but should immediately notify the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Canada Paper Money Society

A regional rally of Canadian paper money collectors was held January 29 at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto. This meeting, exhibition and bourse was the first related exclusively to Canadian paper money and was not held in conjunction with a coin show.

To this extent it was experimental, but it can be said without question that, in the minds of those enthusiastic paper money collectors who were there, the experiment was a definite success. They stayed, strayed, talked and swapped experiences hours on end, and no doubt some dealers bought and sold.

Unquestionably the highlight of the day was the exhibition. Eight exhibitors demonstrated their knowledge and understanding by artfully preparing almost 40 cases of exhibits that covered a broad range of paper money subjects. The exhibits were invitational and of such uniformly high quality that judges might have had considerable difficulty in reaching a conclusion had they been in competition. The following list will illustrate the broad range of subject matter:

Early Ontario Private Banks — Wm. Clarke and Graham Esler, London, Ont.; Representative Collection — Chartered and Other Banks, Private Issues, etc. — A. S. MacNab, Ingersoll, Ont.; 25¢ Fractional Canadian Currency — J. A. Peddie, Toronto; Canadian Banknotes Issued for use in West Indies — F. C. Jewett, Toronto; Early Government of Canada Notes, Odd Serial Numbers and Denominations, Errors, etc. — Walter Allen, Bronte, Ont.; Uncirculated Canadian Bank Notes — Maxwell E. Brail, Jackson, Mich.; Banknotes of Toronto — Bank of Canada; Early Canadian Banknotes, Including Spurious Banks, Bank of Nova Scotia, Bank of New Brunswick and Metropolitan Bank — Bank of Nova Scotia.

It was an eventful day, right from early morning when Walter Allen showed color slides of many bank and government notes rarely seen. It was exciting to some as well; for instance, to the nurse who was visiting Toronto to attend a convention. She brought a note, folded to about 1" by 2" to fit a small envelope, because she had heard about the show and came to see if the note had any value. She had acquired it at a small town auction in a lot of odds and ends at nominal cost. She left completely happy and $150 richer because it turned out to be a Bank of British North America 1874 $10 note issued at Hamilton, Ont., and in quite acceptable VF condition.

The Society's annual membership fee of $10 provides members with the quarterly magazine and use of the library, including slides. Current prices of bank notes are given in a section of each issue of the Journal. Information may be obtained from General Secretary F. C. Jewett, 26 Davean Drive, Bayview Hills, Willowdale, Ont., Canada.

Peale Museum Medal

A medal of approximately silver dollar size has been struck by the Peale Museum in Baltimore to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the two monuments responsible for Baltimore's nickname, "The Monumental City." The Washington monument, started in 1815 as the first architectural monument to George Washington, is featured on one side of the medal. On the other side is the Battle monument, erected shortly after the British attack on Baltimore and Fort McHenry during the War of 1812.

The medal is available in bronze at $1 and in sterling silver at $10 from the Peale Museum, 225 N. Holliday St., Baltimore, Md. 21202. Proceeds from its sale are for the benefit of the museum and its educational program.

RCDA Convention in Houston

It's not long until convention time in Texas again. The national RCDA convention is to be held at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel in Houston, June 3-5. Wide publicity is being given to this show via radio, television, newspapers and coin periodicals. Everyone knows that Houston is a wonderful convention city and means money to RCDA bourse table dealers, for in Houston there is plenty of money and buyers unlimited. A real fine convention is being planned and, due to the wide publicity being given, the largest attendance of any convention anywhere this year is expected.

Houston is interesting historically to all visitors, having many points of interest such as the Houston ship channel, San Jacinto battlegrounds, a great metropolitan city and, of course, the famous astradome. Houston is not far from the Gulf of Mexico for those who want to take an extra day for deep sea fishing, or just to stroll along the beach at Galveston. Another point of interest to all dealers about the nation is that Houston has direct connections for all major airlines so that merchandise can be sent directly there.

The Shamrock Hilton Hotel is one of the finest in Texas, with ample convention space and well equipped rooms. The Castillion Room will be held for officials and board meetings of RCDA; the Grecian Room will be used for meetings; the Garden Room will be used as a hospitality room for the ladies; and the Saturday evening banquet will be held in the Emerald Room. Since the A.N.A. convention there last August, arrangements have been made for a better lighting system and more efficient air conditioning in the large bourse area.

Shamrock room reservation cards will be mailed to all RCDA members. Others should write promptly to the Shamrock Hilton Hotel, Main and Holcombe Blvd., Houston, Texas for reservations as early as possible. RCDA extends a welcome for all who can to be at the Houston show. A. I. Martin, 6207 Chevy Chase Dr., Houston, Texas 77027, is the general chairman.

RCDA dealers should write to RCDA, Inc., P. O. Box 536, Denison, Texas 75020, for bourse reservation forms. Delay could result in not getting a table in Houston.

Controversial Coin

Pending further checking, investigation and verification of the 1964 multiple struck cent, and due to the fact that this coin is so highly controversial, and in keeping with the opinions of many reputable RCDA dealers, until such time as more data and information may be compiled concerning the 1964 multiple struck penny, all prior letters by RCDA concerning it are hereby withdrawn. Any support of RCDA on the multiple struck cent is hereby withdrawn pending final conclusions concerning it. — WILSON F. WALTERS, Exec. Sec.

Lehigh University Plaque

There was an announcement on page 293 of the March issue of a plaque issued in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Penna. The original release on this plaque did not show the price, which is now stated to be $3.25, postpaid. Stanley Heffner, manager of the University Bookstore, requests that purchasers include check or money order with their orders, and that residents of Pennsylvania add 15¢ for state tax purposes.

Katanga Article Correction

Dear Mr. Bradfield:

With reference to the article on the coins of Katanga by Dr. Crawford in the January issue of The Numismatist, I would point out that the entire series of Katanga coins, 1 and 5 fr. copper and 5 fr. gold, were struck at the Royal

Mint, London in 1961 and 1962, and not as guessed by the author of the article at the Brussels Mint. The mintage was published in the 1961 and 1962 Royal Mint reports as well as in other numismatic publications in the U. S. except The Numismatist. The total mintage was 8,500,000 — 5 fr. copper; 2,500,000 — 1 fr. copper; and 20,000 — 5 fr. gold. — VINCENT F. TORHAN, A.N.A. 19843

New Medal Announced

D & S Medals, Inc., announces the issuance of its first medal, commemorating the battleship USS Alabama now berthed at Mobile, Ala. The battleship is shown on the obverse under power, the reverse being a map of the battle area in which the ship's nine engagements took place. The 39 mm medal was struck in fine silver, silver oxidized bronze, oxidized bronze and in aluminum. Direct inquiries to James M. Davis, 212 Guaranty Savings Life Bldg., Montgomery, Ala.

A.N.A. Member Emblem

James S. Hamilton, Jr., A.N.A. 54990, writes that he had a die prepared of the A.N.A. member emblem as pictured on page 163 of the February issue. This was done when the emblem was first announced so that he could have a rubber stamp of the emblem made. The results were excellent as shown by impressions from his rubber stamp on his letter. From this die he can have additional stamps made at a cost of only $1.50, and he is willing to supply them to other members at cost plus 25¢ to cover cost of packaging and mailing. Delivery, he states, would take about three weeks from receipt of order with remittance of $1.75. Hamilton may be contacted at 33 Fairmount Ave., Somerville, N. J.

New Queen Elizabeth Medal

Illustrated is a pure silver, 40 mm., 25 gram medal of the design of one issued in gold last year to commemorate the visit of Queen Elizabeth to the West German Republic in May. These silver pieces, with proof-like surface, are available at $9.00 each from A. A. Freiwah, A.N.A. 54919, Forstenrieder, Allee 4/IV, Munich 49, Germany. His letter indicates that the medals are being issued from the Bavarian State Mint and that "only a limited quantity have been struck." The Association thanks member Freiwah for donating the medal pictured herewith to the A.N.A. fund.

Atlanta Convention "A-OK"

Yes, despite the fact that our conventions are snake-bit by bad weather, thousands braved freezing cold and snow to enjoy the second annual convention of the Georgia Numismatic Association the last weekend in January. The show was a success—the GNA made money, the dealers were satisfied, and, hopefully, all who attended found the items they were looking for.

A great deal of business was transacted behind the scenes. The main item was the election of the following officers for 1966: President George M. Todd, Atlanta; First Vice President Conrad McNair, Macon; Second Vice President John Parks, Savannah; Secretary Tom Blasingame, Decatur; Treasurer Frank Howard, Macon; Historian Mrs. D. H. Carter, Marietta; and Board Members L. A. Cook, Hapeville, Charles VanDiviere, Brunswick, Bo Gregory, Vienna, Joseph O'Connell, Columbus, Fred Johnston, Augusta, and Roy Bailey, Rome.

The convention really started Wednesday evening with the educational program. The audience was spellbound over the excellent talks by Glenn Smedley, John Dunn, and Margo Russell. Smedley supplemented his talk on "Art on Paper Money" with beautiful color slides. Dunn detailed incidents from his personal experiences to better explain his talk on "Grading of Coins." Last, but definitely not least, Mrs. Russell in her charming style used a crystal ball to aid her reminiscence of "The Golden Age of Numismatics." For their gracious contribution to the success of the convention, the board awarded each with an honorary membership.

Glenn Smedley served as moderator of the seminar on "Coin Club Management" on Thursday evening. A large group attended this important meeting at which many questions on auctions, educational programs and business procedure were answered.

An honorary membership was presented during the course of the show to the one person who has done, by far, the most for GNA. This man was the prime organizer, motivating force, inspiration, and the living example of what GNA really stands for. You probably have guessed by now that this could have been only past President Conrad McNair.

The date and location of the 1967 convention was not decided upon definitely, but it will be in January somewhere in the great State of Georgia.

Paramount Coin Expands

The officers and directors of Paramount International Coin Corporation have announced the acquisition of the businesses and assets of two of the foremost rare coin companies in the United States: Empire Coin Company, Inc., of Johnson City, N.Y. and its affiliates; and World Numismatiques, Inc., of Englewood, Ohio.

Empire Coin Company was founded in 1958 by James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers. Since that time the firm's business has grown to a worldwide scope. Last year it conducted business amounting to over one million dollars. In addition to its buying and selling activities, Empire has been a leading figure in the field of numismatic research and writing. The directors of Empire, James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers, will continue their numismatic activities as officers, directors and major stockholders of Paramount International Coin Corporation.

World Numismatiques, Inc., was owned by James F. Kelly, one of America's most prominent numismatic figures for several decades. He has been especially active in the field of auctions and has held many of the country's largest and most successful coin sales. In addition to six convention auctions for the American Numismatic Association, he has auctioned countless thousands of coins in many regional and metropolitan sales. Kelly will continue his numismatic endeavors as an officer, director and major stockholder of Paramount, and will supervise the firm's auction department.

With the acquisition of these two businesses, Paramount emerges in the forefront of American numismatic firms, with central offices at 1 North Main St., Englewood, Ohio. Empire Coin Company, a division of Paramount, will continue at its present offices in the Empire Bldg., Johnson City, N.Y.

Paramount International Coin Corporation is a publicly owned corporation with stockholders in all parts of the United States. In addition to the officers, Michael V. DiSalle, James F. Kelly, Max Humbert, James F. Ruddy and Q. David Bowers, the Paramount board of directors is composed of prominent business and financial executives.

Correct Medal Picture

Dr. Buenger, A.N.A. 50383, promptly spotted incorrect dates on the reverse of the Andrew Johnson medal pictured on page 169 of the February issue. An inquiry to Presidential Art Medals brought the explanation that the photo was of the sculptor's original model; that the incorrect dates were spotted and changed; and that all of the medals issued were correct. Herewith is a photo of the model after the dates had been changed to those of President Johnson's term of office.

Next Numismatic Congress

Word has been received from Otto Mørkholm, secretary to the Commission Internationale De Numismatique, that the International Numismatic Commission is preparing its next Congress in cooperation with the Danish National Museum and the Scandinavian Numismatic Union. It will take place in Copenhagen in 1967 from August 28 to September 2. Persons wishing to participate are requested to send a preliminary and non-committal application at once to the secretariat of the Congress, c/o The Royal Collection of Coins and Medals, The National Museum, Copenhagen K., Denmark. A fully detailed circular will be sent direct to these applicants not later than October 1966.

Suggestions for lectures to be delivered at the Congress should be submitted as soon as possible. An allowance of twenty minutes for each lecture must be observed strictly. The working committee reserves for itself the right to make selections from the various offers if the number of communications make limitations necessary.

For Information Only

The following letter from Germany, dated January 14, 1966 was received and is being published (in essence) for your information. The pieces illustrated are said to be "new issues, coined in pure silver." The Association opposes copies and reproductions of numismatic items not clearly marked as such. — EDITOR

Dear Mr. Bradfield:

As you well know, antique Greek coins are a treasure of infinite beauty and imperishable achievement admired even today. They are not only the first image of the concrete idea of coined money but also an expression of the continuous perfection of the mind and spirit of a well-balanced religious and political community. In creating these often tiny coins, the Greeks followed the strict laws of their superior art.

Last year 1000 sets (as illustrated, 5 pieces all having the quadriga reverse) were brought up in the market. This year 4000 more sets will be available to collectors. That means only 5000 sets will total this issue, and no more of the same will be minted and issued. I am taking the distribution of this 5 piece Greek set for the U.S. too. The cost is estimated to be U.S. $18.00 per set, and they will be supplied to me in sealed plastic holders. — A. A. FREIWAH, A.N.A. 54919

Correspondence Wanted

Dear Editor:

I should like to exchange with American numismatists. Mr. William A. Knapp (A.N.A. 8818) from Kansas City wrote me to turn to you. I hope you'll help me and that I will hear from you soon. My address is: Karlovac, Frankopanska 1/II, Jugoslavija. — ZIVKOVIC T. ZORAN

California Fall Convention

The Northern California Numismatic Association, Inc., an organization consisting of 28 member coin clubs and 700 individual members, will hold its fifth annual coin and currency exhibition at the San Francisco Hilton Hotel, located in downtown San Francisco, September 15-18, 1966. The central theme will be "Numismatics for Youth."

Recognizing the importance of our junior collectors, a special effort will be made to encourage junior collectors and particularly junior exhibitors. All nationally recognized youth groups, including the Boy and Girl Scouts, will be asked to participate fully. Special exhibit areas, awards and educational features will be provided for the junior collectors — the numismatists of tomorrow.

Col. Everett Higgins, president and general chairman, has offered a President's Cup; a perpetual trophy to further encourage club exhibits. These will not be in competition with individual exhibitors. In addition to many educational features, special invitational exhibits, and competitive exhibits, 100 bourse spaces will be available through H. D. Grimes, bourse chairman. Additional information and contact with committee chairmen may be had by writing to the Northern Calif. Numis. Assn., P.O. Box 5075, San Jose, Calif.

Token Honors Freiberg

The Chicago Area Token and Medal Society has honored Ralph Freiberg for twelve years of service to the American Vecturist Association as chairman of its catalog committee, and for his contributions to numismatics in general. At the December 12 meeting of the Society, a sterling plaquette and a medalet were presented to Freiberg.

Copies of the medalet, as pictured here, are available in "nickel-silver," 28 mm. diameter, from Mrs. Joan C. Lapa, Sec.-Treas. of the Society, 22 W. Madison St., Room 241, Chicago, Ill.

60602, at $1.00 (50c to CATAMS members). Medal Chairman J. M. Kotler states that only 200 pieces were struck, one of which he kindly donated to the A.N.A. medal collection.

Independence National Historical Park

A.N.A. First Vice President Arthur Sipe has drawn attention to a national historical project which merits the attention and consideration of all numismatists in our country. The following is a brief outline of the project as supplied by its curator, Dr. David H. Wallace, 311 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Penna. 19106.

The Independence National Historical Park is administered by the National Park Service, United States Department of the Interior. Its staff is composed of Federal employees under Civil Service.

The Park exists for the dual purpose of preserving and interpreting certain historic buildings and sites, among which are the original buildings erected for the Bank of the United States. Both of these are scheduled for exterior restoration. The first Bank building will house a series of displays on the history of government finance and banking from 1775 to 1836. The second bank will serve primarily as a gallery for the display of our collection of early American portraits, but it will also have a room devoted to the story of the Bank. Both buildings will be open to the public free of charge.

We seek for our collection documentary, pictorial, and numismatic material relating to the two Banks of the United States, including the various offices of discount and deposit. Official bank correspondence or records, letters of congressmen or other public officials concerning the Bank, printed documents and pamphlets, printed checks (especially series showing the various issues), views of the Bank buildings, portraits of the Bank officials—these are all of interest to us. We would be interested also in objects actually used in either of the Banks, such as gold scales, furniture, or books.

Regarding coins, we already have quite a good collection of coins issued by the first United States Mint. Arthur Sipe has offered to look these over and see what we need to fill out the set. I don't know whether these will be displayed in our museum or in the new mint building now under construction three blocks from here. My office, incidentally, is in the first Bank building.

We prefer to receive items for our collection as outright gifts, simply because this eliminates the element of uncertainty which always surrounds a loan. Exceptions are made, however, when circumstances require. We have some funds for purchases also, but would be glad to receive donations earmarked for this purpose.

New and Recent Issues

The 1 dirhem of Morocco, 1965, listed on page 146 of the February issue, is of nickel rather than steel, according to Kenn Henderson of the International Nickel Co. He had a specimen of this coin tested and we thank him for notifying us of the results. Correspondents had described the coin variously as steel, silver, copper-nickel, and nickel-steel.

Our thanks also to Miss Helen Utlek and Mr. Brunetto of Hill and Knowlton, Inc., of New York, public relations counsel for the Bahamas, for special help in connection with the new coins of the Bahamas described in this issue. The new paper money will be described and illustrated in the next issue.

GEMINI SPACE FLIGHTS MEDAL

The National Commemorative Society's 18th medal pays tribute to the Gemini space flight program, with special emphasis on man's first self-propelled walk in space on June 3, 1965. Designed by sculptor Evangelos Frudakis, it marks the first contemporary subject chosen for a medal by Society members.

ULYSSES S. GRANT MEDAL

Ulysses Simpson Grant, 18th U. S. President, is the subject of the 19th medal in the Presidential Art Medals series commemorating presidents. Ralph J. Menconi designed the medal which is available from Presidential Art Medals, P. O. Box 187, Englewood, Ohio 45322, at $2.50 in bronze, $10 in silver and $500 in platinum. The medals are slightly larger than a half dollar, the silver issue being limited to 6,500 serially numbered pieces.

JERUSALEM COIN-MEDAL

The 9th and last in the series of medals featuring historic cities in Israel, designed by Jean David, has been released by the Israel Government Coins and Medals Corp., 850 Third Ave., New York, N. Y. 10022. A city built on rugged hills and long considered the religious cradle of western civilization, Jerusalem is also the capital of Israel. The reverse, designed by Alex Berlyne, has a replica of the Bar-Kochba ancient coin of Jerusalem.

NUMISMATIC RUMOR. Have you noticed a small insignia on the base of the neck of John F. Kennedy on the new half dollar? A rumor was started that it is a hammer and sickle. Not true. No communist symbol appears on any American coin. The device is a stylized presentation of the initials GR and indicates that the portrait was executed by Gilroy Roberts, mint engraver. A line drawing of these initials may be found on page 188, February, 1965 Numismatist.

Book Reviews

Swiss Shooting Talers and Medals by Delbert Ray Krause, Whitman Publishing Co., Racine, Wisc., 1965, board covers, 160 pp., illus., $3.00.

The searchlight of research has been turned into another numismatic bypath and Whitman reveals the results. Not that Swiss shooting awards were unknown to most numismatists and true coin collectors, but few of us had much knowledge of the subject. Why, one wonders when his attention is called to the matter, should a non-militant people like the Swiss are thought to be, make so much of good marksmanship?

Author Delbert Krause, in a severely condensed six-page historical sketch of Switzerland from 1291 to date, gives us a clue to the answer and the background of the famed shooting festivals. Since the truly beautiful and artistic medallic pieces issued in connection with the shoots are the collector's greatest concern about them, the remainder of the 160 pages are devoted to a catalog or descriptive listing.

Including 17 actual coins, with legal tender status and values, and 5 pieces of coin weight and composition, the catalog describes 383 pieces. They are listed in order of dates of issue under each of the 22 Swiss cantons, starting with Aargau and ending with Zurich. For added background interest, a few facts are given about each canton and its coat of arms depicted, the latter being helpful in identifying many of the pieces.

We agree with the author's statement that the fine illustrations of 263 pieces (obverses and reverses except 1 rectangular plaque which, presumably, is uniface) are one of the book's outstanding merits. He credits Simeon Wilson of Chicago, whose coin and medal photos have appeared extensively in The Numismatist, with most of the excellent photographic work.

Understandably, the author shied away from pricing the awards, many of which are of very limited issue. He states that the mintage information given can be used as a relative guide to market prices, but we were disappointed to find this data limited to only about 1/5th of the listings. Presumably it just couldn't be obtained in the other cases. Additional information for each piece includes the diameter, metal or metals, and, for many, the engraver's name.

Bound in dark green leatherette, the book is for sale in most book, hobby and coin stores at $3.00 — GLENN S.

The Medallic Portraits of John F. Kennedy by Edward C. Rochette, Executive Editor of Krause Publications, the publisher, Iola, Wisc., 1966, 192 pp., illus., paper back $2.95, deluxe library edition $4.95.

"Medal collecting is a fascinating phase of numismatics. Its scope is wide and varied, and it is hoped by this author that, by the introduction of this catalogue of Kennediana, many will follow suit and add to their collections a series commemorating the life of one of our best loved presidents. The scope of this catalogue goes beyond medals, however, for coins, tokens, some jewelry pieces and counterstamps have been added."

These words by Editor Rochette in his book's preface tell much about the reason for the compilation and its coverage of the subject material. Quite understandably, the popularity of the youthful thirty-fifth President of the United States and his untimely and tragic death resulted in many and varied issues relating to him. A few of the issues did no honor to him; others were made purely to commercialize on his popularity and the shock that his assassination brought to the whole world.

Many collectors of modern medals and tokens will find the book interesting and helpful. Perhaps few will go to the extent of trying to collect all of the trivial items listed and described in this catalog, yet many little-known but worthwhile pieces are brought to light for the specialists. Some of the items listed are not truly medallic, such as foil impressions, jasper by Wedgewood, etc.

The catalog is divided into 7 chapters by periods of issue of the pieces; has a numbering system which incorporates the year of issue; is profusely illustrated; and closes with a guide to pricing most of the 600 items listed, and an index. The photography is not, in some cases, of the best quality, although quite a few of the pieces illustrated appear to have been in less than choice condition. The book is available, in two bindings, from many coin dealers and from the publisher, Krause Publications, Iola, Wisc. 54945. — HARRY FLOWER

National Coin Week — The Time Is Now

National Coin Week time is here; the big week when our theme for 1966 of "Friendships Flower Through Numismatics" is brought to a climax during April 16-23. Clubs participating in Class A, Class B, Class C and Class X, while planning their final activities, should keep in mind also how to report these in your NCW scrapbooks. Each member can help by getting information to the scrapbook chairman about his personal activities — a description of your exhibits, copies of your numismatic talks, newspaper articles, letters, etc. Do not expect one person to do it all. Putting a scrapbook together is work, but once it is done it is something of which to be proud. After it is returned to you it becomes your record of your NCW promotion for 1966.

Don't forget the lists for Certificates of Award. Please start making this list in advance so you do not forget anyone, and check to see if you are spelling the names correctly. These certificates are suitable for framing, and "Bill Jones" might prefer "William Jones" on his NCW certificate. We think you will find the Certificates of Award more attractive this year than previously.

We need an extra listing for these awards, which should be attached to the official entry report. List one name only on a line without any address. The separate listing is necessary because there is too much work for us to copy names from your scrapbooks. All club members who help in the observance of NCW, from setting up an exhibit to working on the scrapbook, are eligible for these certificates. You may request certificates on this list for people who let you use their space for exhibits, schools where you gave a numismatic talk, radio and television stations, newspapers, mayors, etc. This is our way of saying "thank you" to all who help in any way.

For those entering as individuals in Class D or Class Y, the same suggestions apply. If, as an individual or club, you participate in NCW but do not want to enter in competition, you can still receive the Certificate of Award by sending in the official entry report listing your activities, with evidence of participation. You should mark it "noncompetitive." Winners will be listed in the July issue of The Numismatist, according to present plans, and all other entries will be listed in the August issue along with a report of the total activities. Winning awards will be presented at the A.N.A. Diamond Anniversary convention in Chicago, August 16-20.

Julian P. Marks, well known numismatist of Cincinnati, Ohio, has agreed to serve as one of the judges for National Coin Week. Ralph Cleaver, former A.N.A. governor and liaison officer for NCW last year, will come in from Colorado to help judge. This means we will have judges from Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio and Colorado making the decisions as to the winners in National Coin Week competition. What could be more fair?

Your scrapbook entries must reach me by May 25 in order to be judged when these men meet on May 28. It is as simple as that. Don't be late, as it would be a shame to do all of the work and maybe have a winning entry but lose out due to having your scrapbook arrive too late.

Good luck to all, and thank you for your interest and cooperation. This is your show. So . . . Action! Camera! Final take! Let it roll! — Mrs. Lois OTIS, Chm., 17643 Lincoln Ave., Homewood, Ill. 60430

THE FOUR CHAPLAINS MEDAL

The 16th medal struck for members of the National Commemorative Society honors the four army chaplains who went down with the torpedoed S. S. Dorchester on Feb. 3, 1943. They are shown, after giving their life jackets to soldiers, standing with arms linked praying on the tilted deck of the sinking ship. Sculptured by Miss Eleanor Platt of New York City.

SOCIETY OF MEDALISTS

The 72nd semi-annual issue of The Society of Medalists features the squirrel as the "Sower of the Forest," symbolic of the part played by creatures of earth other than man. It is the work of sculptor Elizabeth N. Weistrop who has won many awards in her field of art. The Society is located at 115 East 40th St., New York, N. Y. 10016.

The new clad dimes and half dollars were released officially on March 9, 1966. In some areas they were available at commercial banks on that date; in others, where the supply of coin is adequate, they are being distributed at later dates.

The Banking and Currency Committees of both the Senate and the House of Representatives acted favorably early in March on the bills authorizing the Treasury Department to produce the A.N.A. Diamond Anniversary medal, as outlined in the March issue on page 309.

Coinage Operations

The office of the Director of the Mint recently issued the following description of the process of making coins. Presumably it is in answer to questions which the office receives from time to time on this subject.

United States 5-cent coins (nickels) are cupro-nickel pieces composed of 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel. Our cents are bronze, containing 95 per cent copper and 5 per cent zinc. Pure metals, accurately weighed and combined to produce these alloys, are melted in electric furnaces to form a homogeneous mass and are cast into coinage ingots in water cooled moulds.

The ingots are passed several times through rolling mills which reduce them to long strips of the exact thickness required for the denominations being produced. Some metals harden during these operations and, in order to facilitate the rolling of the cupro-nickel alloy, the material must be softened at two different stages in the reduction process by annealing in a large furnace. The finished strips are fed into high-speed punch presses which cut planchets (blanks) of the proper diameter. Both cupro-nickel and bronze planchets are again annealed in a special type furnace, cleaned, and dried.

Planchets for the 5-cent and 1-cent coins are put through an edge rolling operation which produces a raised rim on them. With a single stroke, the coining press stamps the designs of both the obverse and reverse dies on the planchet.

The Coinage Act of 1965, passed July 23, changed the composition of the dime, quarter and half dollar which formerly contained 90 per cent silver and 10 per cent copper. All silver was eliminated from the dime and quarter, and the percentage reduced substantially in the half dollar. The dime and quarter are manufactured from strips composed of three layers of metal bonded together and rolled to the required thickness. This is called "cladding." The faces are 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel and the core is pure copper, which is visible on the edges of the finished coins.

The half dollar is also a composite coin with the silver content reduced from 90 per cent to 40 per cent. The faces are an alloy of 80 per cent silver and 20 per cent copper, with the core of an alloy of a lesser amount of silver with copper. (The core is about 21½ per cent silver and 78½ per cent copper.)

The initial preparation of the clad material for these three denominations is being handled commercially pending the time when mint facilities will be adapted to take over the process. The suppliers employ a variety of methods for metallurgically bonding the clad strip. The strip is then delivered to the mints in large coils, ready for feeding into the blanking presses. From this point forward, the manufacturing processes are the same as for the 5-cent and 1-cent coins. The edges of dimes, quarters and half dollars are reeded. This familiar feature is also produced as a part of the final stamping operation, the metal being forced into reeded collars.

All denominations are counted and bagged preparatory to shipment to the Federal Reserve banks. Dimes, quarters and half dollars are sacked $1000 per bag for each denomination; nickels are sacked $200 per bag, and cents $50 per bag.

Because of nickel's toughness and high melting point, coins made of this metal are very difficult to counterfeit.

Since the first pure nickel coin was minted over 80 years ago, 45 countries have used this metal for more than 150 types of coins.

A.N.A. Favors Proof Sets

The following letter was sent, with the full approval of the American Numismatic Association board of governors, to the U. S. Treasury Department under date of February 12, 1966.

Honorable Robert A. Wallace
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Wallace:

It has been brought to my attention that a bill or bills have been introduced in Congress asking for resumption of United States proof sets. I understand also that the price for these sets is to be in excess of $7.00 under the terms of the bill or bills.

It is my understanding that no legislation is required for the striking of proof sets. Therefore, the minting and distribution of proof sets and the price to be charged should be at the discretion of the Treasury Department.

As outlined to you in an earlier letter, the American Numismatic Association, with a membership of approximately 27,000, strongly advocated the resumption of proof sets as soon as the Treasury Department feels this may be done without jeopardizing the flow of regular minted coins into normal channels. It is our feeling that a $5.00 maximum cost should be placed on proof sets. Any price in excess of this could easily be prohibitive to many young collectors as well as to many advanced collectors of modest means.

We sincerely hope that the Treasury Department will find that proof sets may be produced and distributed profitably at our suggested maximum of $5.00 per set.

The American Numismatic Association is proud of the part it took in the alleviation of the coin shortage in 1965.

Sincerely,
(signed) S. W. Freeman

Orders & Medals Society of America

Back in April of 1949 a young medal collector in San Francisco had an idea that other collectors with a similar interest might enjoy getting together to share information concerning their hobby. To this end, S. G. Yasinitzky issued a two page mimeographed sheet called The Medal Collectors' Co-operative. The enthusiasm with which this idea was met led to the establishment of the Orders & Medals Society of America in March of 1950. By November of that year the Society publication, The Medal Collector, had graduated from a mimeographed to a printed form, thus becoming the first illustrated periodical devoted entirely to orders, medals and decorations. From its simple beginning, The Medal Collector has grown in size and quality and is now a thirty-two page monthly containing articles written by scholars in the awards field in all parts of the world.

Receiving a periodical and correspondence with fellow collectors are enjoyable aspects of this hobby, but the membership felt the urge for a more direct exchange. The first attempt at this was made with the gracious help of the A.N.A. at its 1956 convention in Chicago. The Orders & Medals Society of America was given an exhibition room adjoining the main exhibition hall where the orders, medals and decora-

eric C. von Allendorfer, Gary C. Krug, Franklin P.
Weber (in background) and Phillip M. Weber.

tions of the countries participating in World War I were displayed. This gave the members residing in the midwest an opportunity to gather and meet with correspondents in person. The convention fever instilled by the A.N.A. did not take permanent form until 1960 when, under the leadership of Dr. A. F. Goodwin, OMSA president, the first convention was held in Gloversville, N. Y.

Since that time annual conventions have been held in various parts of the United States. Now the convention is returning to Chicago and will immediately precede the A.N.A. Diamond Anniversary celebration at the Congress Hotel. All A.N.A. members are cordially invited to join with OMSA and learn a little more about this side of numismatics.

The OMSA convention dates are August 12-14, and a full schedule of events will appear later. Further information about the Orders & Medals Society of America can be obtained from Secretary James R. Wilkinson, 428 West Dayton Circle, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

PAUL REVERE MEDAL

The Paul Revere medal is the 17th in the National Commemorative Society series. Noted for many accomplishments and deeds, Revere is depicted by sculptor Thomas Lo Medico as a silversmith, the most skilled of his time. The reverse represents Revere's famed midnight ride, which marked the beginning of the American Revolution, and the Minute Man by his plow.

Birthday Greetings to:

Norman Shultz of Salt Lake City, Utah, who was born on April 2. He entered the A.N.A. on January 1, 1918 as number 1957 and has been a continuous member since that date. Norm, while not yet a senior citizen, is the Association's senior professional numismatist in years of membership. His first advertisement in The Numismatist appeared in July, 1916.

The next two gentlemen are twins — almost. At least, they were born on the same day of the same month in the same year.

Sam G. Homan of Brooklyn, New York, whose birthday is April 10. He became member No. 2520 on May 1, 1923.

Howard H. Hanlon, Mercer Island, Wash., was born on April 10 also. He enrolled November 1, 1923 as number 2580 and his membership has been continuous. — J.W.O., Historian

SIGNERS MEDAL

The 15th medal in the series of signers of the Declaration of Independence bears the facing portrait of John Witherspoon of New Jersey on the obverse. The cross to the right is a reminder that he was a clergyman, the only one among the signers. The reverse features a map of the battle of Princeton and the historic Nassau Hall on Princeton campus. Pure silver pieces serially numbered, limited to 7500 at $10 each, and bronze pieces of $2.50 each are available from Presidential Art Medals, P. O. Box 187, Englewood, Ohio 45322.

HALL OF FAME MEDAL

Thomas Alva Edison is honored by the 29th medal memorializing persons enshrined in the Hall of Fame at New York University. Designed by G. W. Carter, the principal feature of the symbolic reverse is an angel holding a replica of the first incandescent light bulb, the achievement for which Edison is best remembered. Struck by the Medallion Art Co., the medals are distributed by department store coin sections and the Coin & Currency Institute, 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001. Like other medals in the series, the 1 3/4 inch bronze is $3, the 3 inch bronze is $6, and the 1 3/4 inch silver, serially numbered to 7500, sells for $12.75.

Obituaries

Neil Carothers

Neil Carothers, noted educator, economist, lecturer and author, died in his 81st year at Sleepy Hollow Nursing Home in Annandale, Va. on July 8, 1965. He was best known in the numismatic field as the author of Fractional Money, recognized as the authentic work on the subject. Also he wrote Monetary Experiments and numerous articles dealing with economics. His only contribution to The Numismatist was an excellent review of John Willem's book on the trade dollar in the April, 1960 issue.

Dr. Carothers was born Sept. 19, 1884 at Chattanooga, Tenn., from which he moved to Little Rock, Ark., at an early age. He was selected as the first Rhodes Scholar from Arkansas, was an instructor and assistant professor of economics at the University of Arkansas, studied and received his doctorate at Princeton in 1916, entered military service in 1917, and became Professor of Economics and Director of the College of Business Administration at Lehigh University in 1923. He gave up his post as Dean of the College in 1949 and became professor emeritus.

An opponent of the Roosevelt "new deal," Dr. Carothers served as economic adviser to the Chicago Daily News and other newspapers, and, although a Democrat, took an active part in the Republican presidential campaigns of 1940 and 1944. His national standing as an economist secured his election as a vice president of the Economic National Committee on Monetary Policy, and in 1952 he was appointed by the United Nations as an adviser on formulating policies for the economic recovery of South Korea.

Survivors include his widow, Eileen Hamilton Carothers, and his three sons: Neil III, who was elected a Rhodes Scholar in 1948; Hamilton, with a law firm in Washington, D. C.; and Stuart, who is connected with Princeton University.

Claude W. Rankin A.N.A. No. 24079

Claude W. Rankin, 82, of Fayetteville, N. C., died on January 11 in Highsmith-Rainey Memorial Hospital where he had been critically ill for about two weeks. A native of Fayetteville, he was the founder of the Claude W. Rankin and Son Insurance Agency, a former city treasurer and one of the organizers of the Cumberland Savings and Trust Co., which later became the Cumberland National Bank.

Rankin was a trustee of the University of North Carolina for the past 20 years and, being a sports enthusiast, he attended UNC team games at home and away. He took an active part in numismatic organizations, having been a former president of the North Carolina Numismatic Association. In addition to his membership in A.N.A., he was a charter member of the national Society of Paper Money Collectors. He was a charter member also of the local Kiwanis Club, one of its past presidents, and a life-long member and an elder of the First Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Lola Bruton Rankin; a son, Claude W. Rankin Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Louisa MacIlwain; a brother; three sisters; and two grandchildren. — CJA

Ben C. Sexton, Sr. A.N.A. No. 35262

Ben C. Sexton Sr., president of the Queens County Coin Club, New York City, died January 27 at the age of 67 in Mary Immaculate Hospital, Jamaica, N. Y. He had recently started his second term as president of the Club. Upon retiring three years ago as an accounting clerk in the U. S. Assay Office in New York City, he devoted most of his leisure time to the study of numismatics.

Mr. Sexton was born in Sturgis, S.D., and for the past 30 years resided in the Ozone Park section of New York City. He was a U. S. Army veteran of World War I, and a member of the Queensborough Lodge of Elks. Survivors include his widow, a daughter, two sons and seven grandchildren, all of Ozone Park. — RJB

Fred R. Marckhoff
A.N.A. No. 6160

Fred R. Marckhoff, 55, of Elgin, Ill., died January 31 shortly after arriving in his office at the Internal Revenue Service in Chicago. He had been in government service for more than 25 years, the past 8 years in IRS.

Fred was born in Elgin, and since the death of his parents quite a few years ago, had lived with his brother Kenneth in the family home there. A member of A.N.A. since 1937, Fred was an ardent collector and student of bank notes and other items relating to early U.S. banking. Over the years he had written articles that were published in The Numismatist, in The Essay-Proof Journal, in Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, and had prepared a series for Numismatic News on "Currency of the Indian Nations." He was active in the formation of the Society of Paper Money Collectors, had contributed numerous articles to its quarterly magazine, of which he was assistant editor, and was coordinating efforts to up-date and reprint the state bank note listings compiled by Wismer some 25 years ago.

In addition to research and writing, Marckhoff had made a number of exhibits of his favorite numismatic material in recent years. While awards came to him for many of these exhibits, he was proudest of the Howland Wood best-of-show award which his 1964 A.N.A. convention exhibit of obsolete paper money of Indian territory won.

Fred was an active member of the First EUB Church in Elgin and the Rev. Edward Henninger officiated at the funeral services. It would be an exaggeration to use the usual phrase that he left a host of friends, but those who knew and worked with Fred, numismatically and otherwise, know how much he will be missed. I was one of his friends and one who worked with him in his writings and exhibits, and I know that we have lost a true numismatist in Fred's untimely death. — GBS

Cent Shortage in Vietnam

The daily official bulletin of the U.S. Military Assistance Command Vietnam carried the following notice on January 20, 1966:

"Appeal for Pennies: During the past few months over 1,450,000 pennies have been received in Vietnam and yet the Exchange and Commissary Store are again without any! The only place these pennies can possibly be is in the possession of individuals. Shipping these large quantities of pennies to Vietnam costs many taxpayers' dollars. We are all taxpayers. All personnel are requested to exchange their 'hoards' of pennies for MPC at the Disbursing Office, HSAS, Monday thru Friday, 0800-1130 or 1400-1630 hours."

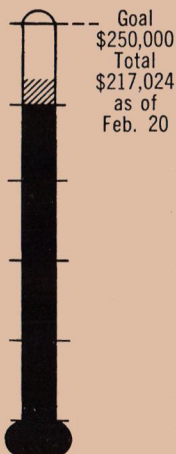

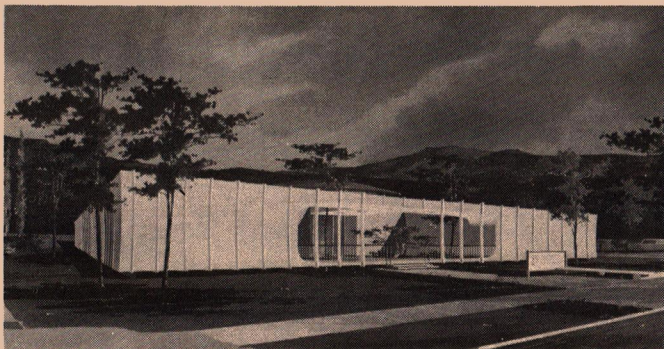

All U.S. coins except the cent were withdrawn from circulation among Americans in Vietnam last year when paper Military Payment Certificates (MPC or scrip) were substituted. Since then, the U.S. Military Exchange and Commissary stores have substituted a stick of gum or a piece of candy as change for the odd-cent purchases whenever the supply of cents runs low. Common American coins have also appeared recently among the coins for sale in Saigon sidewalk vendors' stands and in curio shops.

Most of the recently minted cents noted in circulation among Americans in Vietnam have been from the Denver mint dated 1963 and 1964. But within the past month or so, uncirculated 1964 cents from the Philadelphia mint have appeared.

It would be difficult to prove on any large scale, but with the withdrawal of all U.S. currency except the cent, a good part of the reported "hoarding" of the one remaining humble U.S. coin may well be by Vietnamese. The "shiny penny" has its attraction for Vietnamese children, and adults know that 100 will make a dollar — an increasing difficult and expensive item of security to obtain, even on the black market. — DAVID G. BRIGGS, A.N.A. 35098

A.N.A. Building Fund

A National Home and Headquarters Will:

- ▶ Make possible more and better services to A.N.A. members through increased efficiency and consolidation of scattered facilities and personnel;
- ▶ Provide for expected rapid growth and expansion of A.N.A. and its programs;
- ▶ House the nation's largest circulating numismatic library and improve the dissemination of numismatic knowledge and information through its audio-visual program and its publications;
- ▶ Provide for the establishment of a national numismatic museum;
- ▶ Be a symbol of the importance of the collecting and study of money from the dawn of civilization to the present and tomorrow;
- ▶ Afford every member an opportunity to have a tangible part in the A.N.A. for its betterment and the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics on a nationwide scale.

An Up-to-Date Picture

An architect's concept of the A.N.A. national home and headquarters appears at the top of this page, replacing the symbolic picture previously shown. This architectural drawing shows for the first time a view of the facility as seen through the eyes of an approaching visitor. With the planning and design work moving forward rapidly, a layout and drawings for the building will be available for The Numismatist in a near future issue.

By the last count there are 51 coin clubs and other numismatic organizations that have contributed $250 or more to the A.N.A. building fund. Many other clubs have projects such as donation auctions, raffles and coin shows planned or under way to place them in the "250-Club" rank. This widespread and increasing participation by clubs and their members demonstrates the faith that collectors have in the bright future of numismatics and the Association. Let us all salute these clubs for their contributions to the betterment of numismatics to which the A.N.A., regional groups and local clubs are inseparably dedicated and which is the principal reason for their existence.

Among the outstanding contributions listed in this issue are those of 3 new 250-Clubs, the Philadelphia Coin Club, the Maine Numismatic Association, and the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs; a check from McCormick-Armstrong Co., Inc., Wichita, printers of The Numismatist; and coins valued at nearly $1200 from a recent A.N.A. member in New York State who does not wish to have his name published. These and other additions to the building fund bring it to within less than $35,000 of the quarter of a million dollars goal.

The annual convention of American Numismatic Association will be held in Chicago, Ill., August 16-20, incl., 1966 in the Pick-Congress Hotel. Being our Diamond Anniversary convention, I especially urge the attendance of every member who can arrange to be there, and that each member in attendance take part in the business meetings, the educational forum and all other activities. The general chairman is Harry X Boosel, P. O. Box 132, Northtown Sta., Chicago, Ill. 60645. — MATT H. ROTHERT, President

How many members noticed the advertisement of Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. in the March 7 Sports Illustrated, March 13 Life, and April 11 Newsweek? Part of the picture is a Lincoln cent bearing the date 1909S. Don't look on the other side of the page to see if the reverse has the initials VDB, or wonder if the Company knew the value of the coin. It does; and states that the 1909S VDB cent is from its collection of Lincoln items.

Official Testimony

On February 8 Miss Eva Adams appeared before the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Legal and Monetary Affairs, in Washington, D. C., and gave a detailed report on the status of coinage and related matters. Several of her statements of special interest to coin collectors are noted here.

"We have not made any concrete decisions relating to the production of special coin sets for collectors. If we do find that the coin shortage has been overcome, you may be sure we will produce these special sets as soon as possible."

"The numismatic press has done its part to keep down speculation in rolls and bags of coins, old as well as new. Possibly less dramatic, but tremendously sincere and helpful, has been the word given to us by the 'little people' whose coin clubs we have visited. With almost militant fervor, they have assured us that they are going to wait to get their specimens of the new clad coins until after the needs of commerce have been met. The Treasury has had wonderful cooperation from them. Though they, at times, were the whipping boy as a contributing cause of the shortage, you and I know they were much maligned."

Here are dates given for changes in coinage operations at the mints. New clad quarters were first struck at Philadelphia on Aug. 26, at Denver on Nov. 15. Clad dimes were started at Philadelphia on Dec. 6 and at Denver on Feb. 14, 1966. The change to silver clad half dollars was made at Denver on Dec. 30.

While not in her direct testimony, Miss Adams submitted certain committee reports, etc. for the record. Two suggestions in the long report of a joint Treasury-Federal Reserve Board committee are of interest to collectors.

Under the heading Hoarding, "The Treasury consider hiring an outside research group to develop and carry out a proposal for sampling coin dealers and collectors for the purpose of obtaining a representative indication of their holdings."

Under Miscellaneous, "The Treasury consider re-establishing a numismatic service as soon as possible in order to realize the revenue that would come from such a service and to provide collectors with proof sets and possibly other new coin."

Indianapolis Invites You

You are cordially invited to attend the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Central States Numismatic Society at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis, Ind., April 29-May 1. General Chairman Leo G. Terry and Co-chairman Carl Simons have arranged for an interesting numismatic program and they urge you to be present. Registration will be $1 to those who wish a convention badge and program. A free visitor's label will be available to anyone not wanting a badge.

One of the main features of this convention will be the many attractive and historical exhibits. Awards are beautiful medals struck by the Medallist Art Co. All non-winner exhibitors will receive a trophy for their entry. Exhibits will be judged by competent judges. Before April 20 all applications must be in the hands of Exhibit Chairman Bruce Glenn, 3534 N. Wittfield, Indianapolis, Ind. 46236.

The filled bourse area will consist of 80 prominent dealers from the United States and Canada. Here you can purchase that long desired numismatic item, or you may trade or sell those extra coins that you no longer need. The security room opens Thursday, April 28, at 12 noon for early arrivals. Uniformed guard service by Pinkerton will be maintained around the clock during the convention.

A bus trip around town planned for Saturday morning has been re-scheduled for 1 p.m. Friday due to the opening of the Speedway for practice one day earlier than expected. All who take this trip will receive a certificate stating they have been one lap around the famous Speedway race track. If you wish to take this trip, send $1.50 for a reservation to John Sementa, 3507 N. Butler, Indianapolis, Ind.

Indianapolis Coin Club committee chairmen outlining CSNS convention plans are, seated l. to r., Don Foltz, security; Bruce Glenn, exhibits; Robert Evans, bourse; Leo G. Terry, general chairman; and Carl Simmons, co-chairman. Standing is Robert Gladden, registration.

The educational program Friday at 8 p.m. will have as speakers A.N.A. President Matt H. Rothert, "Slides and Talk on United States Fractional Currency," and L. A. Cook, prominent Georgia numismatist and exhibitor, speaking on Indian currency and coins, particularly relating to how Indiana and Indianapolis derived their names. This timely subject should be of real interest as Indiana is celebrating its sesquicentennial year. Helen Rhodes, historian and curator, U.S. Army Finance Corps Museum, Fort Harrison, will show a movie and speak on "The Home of the Army Dollar."

"Ladies' activities room available at all times," says Mrs. Jackie Simons, hostess. She plans a tea for the ladies, presenting "Charm in Today's Busy World," by the Patricia Stevens Finishing School; a bingo party; and a Saturday afternoon luncheon featuring

Mrs. Alfred A. Bein, wig consultant of Sears Roebuck Co. Get your tickets early for this luncheon.

There are four leading department stores within one block or less of the hotel for the ladies that like to go shopping. The Saturday evening banquet will be served at a reasonable price. Awards will be presented and the new officers installed at the banquet, and there will be entertainment and a well known radio and television personality will take part.

Code of Ethics

American Numismatic Association

Membership in the American Numismatic Association is a privilege extended to those persons and organizations deemed worthy thereof and is not a matter of right. Such membership can be maintained only until the board of governors determines that the conduct of a member has been such that, in the best interest of the Association, his membership should be terminated.

For the guidance of its members, this Code of Ethics has been duly adopted by the board of governors under the authority vested in it by the Federal Charter and the bylaws of the Association. A breach thereof by any member reflects, directly or indirectly, upon all other members. Such a breach shall be considered conduct prejudicial to the welfare of the Association and cause for action by the board of governors.

As a member of the American Numismatic Association,

I agree to support and be governed by the Federal Charter and the bylaws of the Association; and by such rules, policies and regulations as may be in force from time to time;

I agree to conduct myself so as to bring no reproach or discredit to the Association, or impair the prestige of membership therein;

I agree to base all of my dealings on the highest plane of justice, fairness and morality;

I agree to neither buy nor sell numismatic items of which the ownership is questionable;

I agree to conform to the accepted standards of dignified advertising;

I agree to take immediate steps to correct any error I may make in any transaction;

I agree not to sell, exhibit, produce nor advertise counterfeits, copies, restrikes and reproductions of any numismatic items if their nature is not clearly indicated by the word "counterfeit," "copy," "restrike," or "reproduction" incused in the metal or printed on the paper thereof, with the exception of items produced prior to 1933 and generally accepted by numismatists and not in any way misrepresented as genuine;

I agree to represent a numismatic item to be genuine only when, to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is authentic;

I agree to fulfill all contracts made by me, either orally or written, to make prompt payments upon delivery, and to return immediately any item that is not satisfactory;

I agree to give aid to members in their quest for numismatic knowledge.

Objectives of the A.N.A.

A Non-Profit Educational Association Chartered by Congress

Its objects are to encourage and promote the science of numismatics by the acquirement and study of coins, paper money, tokens, and medals; to cultivate fraternal relations among collectors and students; to encourage and assist new collectors and to foster the interest of youth in the subject; to stimulate and advance affiliations between collectors and kindred organizations in the United States and foreign countries; to acquire and disperse trustworthy numismatic information and news; to form and maintain a cabinet of numismatic specimens and a library of numismatic literature and visual aids for the use and benefit of its members, and to demonstrate the fact that numismatics is an educational, serious and entertaining pursuit; and generally to represent coin collecting interests as a national organization.

RARE HAWAIIAN COINS AT DISCOUNT PRICES

Low mintage. Listed page 248 of the Red Book. Many melted, especially dollars of which over 400,000 were melted, according to the records at San Francisco. Many additional coins of each denomination were lost to the sea during a revolt by the people against the government in 1893. Few were left. In fact — during my visit to Hawaii I searched the Islands to locate Hawaiian coins and discovered to my amazement that few people living on the Islands even knew that these coins existed. Most inhabitants were amazed when I showed them coins struck by the U. S. Mint for circulation in Hawaii. They are not only no longer in circulation, but few Hawaiians realize that at one time they had their own coinage. Check your Red Book — Excellent investment potential per dollar invested.

WILLOUGHBY BUYS AND SELLS OLD BLUE BOOKS

We were the first to make a market in OLD REDBOOKS . . . Now another FIRST in response to persistent request we are now establishing a market in OLD BLUE BOOKS. These are of particular interest to numismatists due to the fact that they were the first of WHITMAN'S coin books and we issued for FIVE FULL YEARS before the advent of the first REDBOOK. For those numismatists who engage in serious research we suggest that you obtain a set of these while they are still obtainable. Our supply at present is very limited and there may be some delay in filling orders—in ordering suggest you allow us time to fill your order. We suggest you retain this listing as it will be condensed in future ads.

FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES — BLUE SEALS

EAGER COLLECTORS last month (March) purchased my rare red seals, Federal Reserve notes, series 1914 — only sixty different notes in this series. Now offered are the more common blue seals of this issue. The denominations issued are $5 to $10,000 — only $5 to $100, are listed below. All are in new condition unless otherwise described.

Fifty-two years after these notes first came out, the brilliant, well centered, superbly new specimens are difficult to come by. Here is a rather complete set of $5 to $100 notes, from each of the twelve banks. Collectors of the series should study this list to improve the condition of their holdings. These are "Philpott quality" items from his personal collection, and, doubtless, will go fast.

CHOICE FOREIGN SELECTIONS

Crowns in the $100 to $2500 range are our specialty. Though we maintain a type stock for the collector and dealer that is basic portfolio crown material we are constantly faced with the problem of replacing choice and low mintage items.

Please refer to our last month's buy ad. If you have any of the listed pieces we will guarantee payment at our advertised prices. If you feel our offers to buy are not sufficient make us a counteroffer. In most cases we will pay your price. If you have nice material for sale do not hesitate to contact us.

Below are a few nice specimens. If you don't see what you want write for it. We may have it in stock.

1. 1880 Belgium Anniversary Comm. Y11 Proof 150.00
2. 1887 Austria Kuttentberg mines 2 Gulden Dav. 33 — Cannot miss with a mintage of 400. Proof 850.00
3. 1848 Bavaria Abdication Double Thaler — a coin that is missing in most European collections (approx. 500 minted). Dav. 597, Unc. 250.00
4. 1813 Cattaro 5 Francs necessity piece. Dav. 46, nice E.F. 475.00
5. 1915 Brunswick 5 Marks, Dav. 637, very rare, estimate 30 or so struck in proof. For the type collector that demands quality 350.00
6. 1914 Italy 5 Lire RRR, Unc. 625.00
7. 1935 New Zealand Crown, Y6 strong demand Proof 750.00
8. 1925 Poland Constitution 5 Zlotych. Dav. 250, Choice Unc. Prooflike 350.00
9. 1600 Portcullis East Indies 1/2 Crown. We had heavy response on the crown from our former ads and sold it. We would like to purchase another. If you have one for sale or trade let us know. In the meantime we have been fortunate in acquiring the 4 Testers Portcullis 1/2 Crown of the series. This is far more rarer than the crown itself. Being that as a rule we do not stock half crowns we will let this go at 500.00
10. Russia — We are in need of all Russian Commemoratives in the $200 and up range from 1834 on and will pay Top Dollar.
11. Switzerland Shooting Talers — We will pay 1,000.00 for gem sets or 550.00 for the Glarus and Solothurn pair in choice condition.

We will have a table at the following Conventions. Plan to attend:

CENTRAL STATES — April
Indianapolis, Indiana

CALIFORNIA STATE — April
Fresno, California

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION — June

We at H & M Coins are happy to become part of the advertising members of the Numismatist and we will do everything we possibly can to live up to the high standards set by this fine publication.

Our policy will be as most other dealers; we allow seven day refund on any coins and no questions asked. Coins will only be sent on approval to people who have established themselves with us. All orders that cashiers checks or bank drafts are enclosed will be shipped immediately. Personal checks will have to be cleared before coins are sent (until we get to know you).

Most of our offers will be in high grade properly priced coins and in many cases we will have only one of each so please do not be disappointed if we have to return your check. Thank you, Harold and Peggy April.

WHOLESALE FOREIGN COINS

If you are a dealer looking for a source of supply for foreign coins in small quantities, you will be interested in my new wholesale price list, out April 1. This list offers a wide variety of attractive foreign coins (it does not usually contain crowns), priced per 10 at substantial discounts.

Both my wholesale and retail lists are available without charge to dealers requesting them on their letterhead. Dealers will find these lists both interesting and profitable.

If you are a collector, please write for the retail lists, both the annual stock list and the current monthly list, covering thousands of foreign coins. No charge—and you might find something you need.
